DISORDER IN SPITE OF TROOPS

GOV. STONE SENDS GEN. MILLER TO FIND WHY IT CONTINUES,

His Next Move to Ask for Federal Troops, and It Is Reported That the War Department Will Soon Send Officers to Look Over the Anthracite Region.

TAMAQUA, Pa., Oct. 10 .- The National Guard has now been in the field three days and during that time as many acts of violence have been committed as before the troops arrived.

Two houses have been dynamited; an attack has been made on the Royal Oak colliery at Shamokin, and the workmen clubbed and stoned; a bridge has been dynamited; a non-union engineer was probably fatally injured at Shamokin; three coal trains have been attacked; families of non-union men have been terrorized in the Panther Creek Valley, and, in many places, workmen have been attacked while on their way to and from work

All this has happened in the southern part of the region. In the northern districts the reign of terror has continued in the same way. The continuance of lawlessness prompted Gov. Stone to send Major-Gen. Miller, in command of the guard, out an an investigating tour. The Governor wants to know why it is that order has not been restored. He wants to know especially whether the force at present in the field is unable to cope with the exigencies.

If such is the case, the Governor will make his final move in his effort to uphold law in the Commonwealth, and will ask the President to send Federal troops to the region.

Such a step, it is believed, would solve the problem and result in a speedy resumption of work at the mines. The outlaws in the ranks of the miners are doubly afraid of the Regulars. They have but little respect for the National Guardsmen, because they know that they are very tolerant and that their officers are disposed to deal leniently with all persons who are taken into custody. In the western part of the Schuvlkill Valley a general resumption of work at the Philadelphia and Reading collieries seems to be near. The Brookside and the Good Springs collieries are working, and are producing about 4,000 tons of coal a This fact has been brought to the attention of the mine workers' leaders, and an effort is now being made to force the two plants to suspend operations.

The workmen themselves have made an appeal that troops be sent there to protect them. It is expected that a battalion of the Third Regiment will be sent to-morrow morning. This is the first instance where the striking men have asked the militia for protection.

Gen. Schall, in command of the First Brigade, with headquarters here, was informed to-day that members of Company F and Company A of the First Regiment, stationed at Highland and at Cranberry, were stoned last night. Orders have been issued directing the commanders at those two stations to have their men go on guard with loaded guns, and to instruct them to shoot, and to shoot to kill, if they are molested in any way.

To-night it was learned from a source all shortly send officers to visit the anracite region, and make a thorough inestigation of the situation. It is believed

This week the striking men in this rein hald their relief allowance cut down the second time since the strike opened. Many of the strikers say that the local is are using the greater portion of money contributed for the support of in need to defray alleged expenses. It is asserted that some of the district There's receive $3 a day, which is more than

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 10.-The first trouble which has been experienced with strikers here and the first call for the assistance of troops came to-day, when Col. H. T. Dechert of the Second Philadelphia Troop, stationed near New Philadelphia. was asked shortly before noon to support the civil authorities in making an arrest. Charles Casper, a foreigner, was wanted on the charge of highway robbery for holding up three men who were on their way from Cumbola to Eaglehill The Coal and Iron Police and constables, when they attempted to make an arrest at Cumbola, were intercepted by a mob of foreigners and trouble was feared.

The police applied to Col. Dechert and he promptly sent Company L. under Major A. P. Kunzig and Capt. Robert E. Campbell. They boarded a special train furnished by the Philadelphia and Reading officials and upon their arrival the analysis. officials, and upon their arrival the mob dispersed and the arrest was easily made. To-day the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company was able to make its first shipment of coal from the Silver ts first saipment of coal from the sliver Creek colliery since repeated attempts were made to blow up the railroad bridge at New Philadelphia. The presence of the troops brought this about. Twenty-

Religious Anti-Drug Society. The Rev. W. N. Richie, D. D., a Presbyterian clergyman with an office in the Presbyterian Building, and who is secretary the Interdenominational Committee for the Cure of the Drug Habit, of which, according to his circulars, the Rev. R. F. Sample, former Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, is president, was found guilty of practising medicine illegally in Special Sessions yesterday and fined $75. The New York County Medical Society was the complainant in the case. Two woman detectives got the evidence on which the minister was convicted.

For the last three years Dr. Richie, according to the complaint in the case, has advertised a cure for the drug habit. According to circulars and pamphlets which he sent out the interdenominational committee was formed for the purpose of receiving donations for the curing of victims of the drug habit by Dr. Richie's remedy The treatment was for those in impoverished circumstances, who could not afford to procure the remedy themselves.

In addition to Dr. Sample, the other officers of the committee are, according to the circulars, Thomas O. Conant, LL. D. editor of the Examiner, first vice-president; the Rev. Francis E. Marsten, D. D., second vice-president and W. W. Westervelt, a lawyer of 33 Pine street, treasurer. In a pamphlet issued by Dr. Richie as secretary of the committee letters are given from clergyman and physicians, whose names are not given in full. One of the letters however, is signed by the late Dr. John Hall. Dr. Richie has an office on the ninth floor of the Presbyterian building.

Dr. J. V. Young of the County Medical Association said last night that the society had had its attention first called to Dr. said that complaint had been made that Dr. Richie was not a licensed physician and that he was consequently violating the law of this State by prescribing for those who came to him. "Dr. Richie," said Dr. Young, "did not have the right to prescribe a cure for the morphine habit. A druggist has the right to sell patent medicines or any other medicines to those who call for them, but unless has been prescribed. he has regularly passed his examination as a physician the law says he cannot pre-scribe any remedy. That was what Dr. Richie apparently was doing. He was prescribing his own remedy, according to he complaints we received, and as a clergy man be had no right to do that, no matter how efficacious it might be."

Dr. Richie, whenseen at his office last night, refused to talk about his trial and its result. He referred the reporter to Mr. Westervelt, the treasurer of the com-mittee, who he said was his lawyer. Mr. Westervelt lives out of town. When asked where his cure was administered and where his sanitarium was, Dr. Richie replied that his office served all his purposes. "But I do not care to talk about this matter," he said, "and you will really have

p excuse me."

The Rev. Dr. Francis Marsten,

The Rev. Dr. Francis Supply Com dent of the Presbyterian Supply Committee, who is one of the officers of the Interde-nominational Committee for the Cure of the Drug Habit, was much surprised when he heard of Dr. Richie's experience in court. He said last night that the committee had been formed more with an idea of helping needy people who wished to take the cure and also to supply with clothing poor people who had been cured and to help put them on their feet again. Dr. Richie," said Dr. Marsten last night,

"is a clergyman in the best standing. This cure was invented by a man of science and Dr. Richie obtained it from him. It has cured many to my own knowledge, and the testimonials from such men as Dr. John Hall show that it is all right. I do not think end of Shamokin street and hurled rocks that Dr. Richie was in the habit of pre and clubs at the occupants of the vehicle.

"I am quite sure that he has a physician in his office who does that. Of course he is not a physician. I do not think he gets much, if anything, out of it himself. We believed we were doing good in aiding his work and formed this committee. Of course we have nothing to do with the cure

The Republican party, through Superintendent of Elections McCullagh and Commissioner of Police Partridge, has caused the police officers in charge of each place of registration to challenge every first voter of registration to challenge every first voter and every citizen who has not heretofore voted in the election district who presents himself for registration. The order is issued under the seal of the Police Department, and signed by Commissioner Partridge. The purpose of this order is apparent. With threats of imprisonment and with direct intimidation, they are attempting to keep legal voters from the polis. Tammany Hall, insistent upon a fair election, demands that every citizen entitled to register shall be permitted to do so without being hampered or interfered with.

The Tammany Hall Law Committee will be at the service of any citizen, regardless of his politics, who may be the victim of this new Republican scheme to defeat the purposes of the law.

The superintendent's letter to the Police Department requesting the assistance of the police this year in challenging voters, was made a general order to the force by Commissioner Partridge, and the result was some confusion. Called to Prevent Further Trouble. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 10 .- A family feud at El Dorado, just across the Louisiana line, resulted in several shots and the calling out of the El Dorado military company to suppress disorder.

The trouble grew out of the wedding of Miss Carrie Mullens, the daughter of a photographer in El Dorado, and a young man from Texas, against the wishes of her father. The young people, fearing violence from Mullens, secured the protection of the City Marshel, Guy Tucker, and Constable H. L. Deering.

In the scrimmage that was bound to come Mullens was killed. Three friends of his, Tom, Walter and Matt Parnell, took up the quarrel and attacked Deering and Tucker, who were in the company of City Physician Hilton. A lively shooting affray followed, in which three of the six men were killed, and the other three were seriously wounded.

The dead are Tom Parnell, Walter Parnell and Marshal Guy Tucker. The wounded are Constable Deering, Dr. Hilton and Matt Parnell. As triends of both parties threatened to take up the feud, the El Dorado guards were ordered out and succeeded in pre-

Brooklyn public institutions. Deputy Superintendent McVean, at the Kings County Hospital, said that the employees were suffering for want of heat and that only fifteen or twenty tons of coal remained. In the suburban schools fires were lighted yesterday. Only enough coal is on hand in most of them to last over Monday, should the cool snap continue. In Bensonhurst School No. 128 has 600 pounds of coal and two days' supply of wood. Other schools have no coal, and the children were compelled to sit in cold classrooms yesterday.

The situation at the county buildings is serious. Unless coal is supplied within a few days it will be impossible to heat the buildings. Deputy Charities Commissioner Teale is exerting every effort to get coal. Twenty-five tons of anthracite were promised yesterday, but were not delivered.

CROWN PRINCE OF SIAM KEEPS HIS WELCOMERS UP LATE.

Brother Told Him to Sit Down While Others Stood Up or Nobody'd Know He Was an Heir Apparent-Hopes to Learn a Lot Here About Farming and Business

The Crown Prince of Siam, accompanied ov his brother. Prince Chakrabongse, and he other members of his suite, arrived at his port last night on the Fuerst Bismarck. There was no time lost in this city. As soon as the Crown Prince's seventy-three pieces of personal baggage could be transferred from the liner to the navy yard tug Powhatan the Siamese party were taken from quarantine to the Pennsylvania Railroad station at Jersey City, where a private train had been waiting all day to take them to Washington. They left for Washington at 1 o'clock this morning.

The royal guests were met at Quarantine by Herbert H. D. Peirce, third Assistant Secretary of State, who, as the representative of President Roosevelt, welcomed the Crown Prince to the United States. The other members of the welcoming party were the Siamese Minister, E. H. Loftus, secretary of the Siamese legation; Lieutenant-Commander Eberle, representing the navy; the Hon. William Potter, former Minister to Italy: Col. David B. Sickels former United States Minister to Siam, and Edwin Morgan.

It was 11 o'clock last night when the Fuerst Bismarck reached Quarantine. The receiving party had been down the bay on the Dolphin since 9 o'clock in the morning waiting for her. Mr. Peirce and all the gentlemen with him went aboard the steamship as soon as she had anchored and while his stack of trunks, suit cases and hat boxes were being put aboard the tug the Crown Prince held a reception in the music room.

Reports of the Crown Prince's democratic ways had preceded him. On the ship last night he was at first a little more democratic than was pleasing to some of his suite. His brother suggested to him that he sit down and let the others stand, that there might be some distinction hown for his rank. Mr. Peirce welcomed the future King of Siam and the Crown Prince responded in good English. He said that he was greatly interested in the agriculture and manufacturing of this country and hoped to get a lot of information about them that rentually would be of benefit to Siam. Col. Sickels, who was sent to Siam as United States Minister by President Grant and who introduced poker into that country in 1876, was there when the Crown Prince was born. He reminded the Prince of that fact last night.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN GIBRALTAR, Oct. 10.-It is said that twenty persons have been killed and many wounded by troops in the rioting yesterday and to-day at Linea, within the Spanish

The trouble originated in the desire of the Socialists to hold a meeting to protest against the action of the Spanish Government in closing a Socialist club in a neighboring town. The meeting was pro hibited, and the troops dispersed the as sembly, who raised revolutionary cries and fired on the troops. The soldiers responded with fatal volleys.

The Socialist headquarters were raided and books were seized, showing that under the guise of Socialists Anarchists were communicating with others in various towns of Europe. Domiciliary visits from the evidence furnished by the books re-

San Francisco Attorney Says There Is an Helr to Estate-Claim Laughed At. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10 .- Attorney Wiliam M. Cannon has sprung an heir of Charles L. Fair on the executors. He has notified Hermann Oelrichs that Fair left a child who is entitled to a share of the seven-million-dollar estate, but he refused to divulge the name of the mother or the sex of the infant or the place where the child could be seen.

Mr. Oelrichs laughs at the man's claims. but Attorney Heggerty says that if Cannon presses a claim the same procedure will be adopted as in the case of Laura Biggar; that is, warrants of arrest will be issued for claimants.

MR. FISH DID LEAVE A WILL. One Made in 1869 Discovered and Filed

-It Leaves All to His Widow. The will of Nicholas Fish, the banker, for whose murder Thomas Sharkey is now inder indictment, was filed vesterday in th Surrogate's office. It leaves everything to Clemence S. B. Fish, his widow. The filing of the will was a surprise, as about a week ago Mrs. Fish took out letters of administration on the estate, saving she had been unable to find any will. Mrs. Fish then valued the estate at about $480,000. The document filed yesterday was executed on Sept. 27, 1869, just after the banker's marriage. The witnesses were Francis H. Weeks, R. A. Withaus, Jr., and Wyllys P. Baxter.

Mr. Peabody of Baker & Peabody had charge of the filing of the will. He did session of the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic it was unanimously decided to hold next year's reunion in San Francisco. There were only three cities in the race, Saratoga, Atlantic City and San Francisco. Atlantic City developed unexpected strength this morning and many inducements were offered to the veterans if they would hold the encampment there next year. Of the 675 votes cast, San Francisco received 507 and Atlantic City 168. On motion of one of the delegates from the latter city the vote was made unanimous.

Coal Operators Refuse to Yield to Politicians.

CONFERENCE OVER FOR GOOD.

Threats as Well as Arguments Used by Peacemakers.

The Possibility of Extra Sessions of the New York and Pennsylvania Legislatures Held Up to the Operators-Suit in Pennsylvania Courts Talked Or. Too-Statesmen Wanted a Promise of $5.25 Coal Next Week-Operators Say They Can't Dicker on the Terms Proposed-Mitchell Leaves Town After Seeing Governor Odell and Mayor Low. The peacemaker statesmen and the anthracite coal operators met again yesterday in Senator Platt's office at 49 Broadway and failed to reach a basis for settling Apparently the only conclusion arrived at was that the operators would not negotiate on any terms which Senators Platt, Quay and Penrose and Gov. Odell were able to propose. The operators were represented at the conference by President Baer of the Reading and E. B. Thomas, chairman of the Erie board of directors. When the talk was over neither side was willing to tell what concessions the statesmen had asked, but there is very high authority for saying that some of the representations which were made to the men in control of the coal mines were not con-

EXTRA SESSIONS TALKED OF. They were asked, for example, to consider the possibility of the New York and Pennsylvania Legislatures being convened in extra session to take action relating to the coal supply. Whatever the other pressure that was brought to bear upon them may have been, the operators seem to have resisted it. After the conference a statement was made for them which said that it was impracticable to reach a conclusion of the strike "on the basis suggested this morn-

the coal presidents met next Tuesday, as they do every Tuesday, they would have something favorable to say in reply to what had been suggested to them, but that hope did not seem to find lodgement anywhere else.

DEMAND FOR $5.25 COAL.

The statesmen clung to a hope that when

Last evening one of those who took part in the conference at Senator Platt's office said that the proposition made by the statesman to Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas, representing the operators, was that if by Tuesday next the output from the mines warranted a reduction in the price of coal the distributing agents of the operators should be immediately instructed to offer anthracite coal throughout the United States at a price of $5:5 a ton. Meantime the operators were to do everything possible to increase the output at the mines. The statesmen are looking forward with eagerness to Tuesday, in the hope that by that time the output at the mines will have

issue an order to the distributing agents authorizing them to sell coal at $5.25 a ton ODELL QUICK TO BESENT A SLUR. Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas, representing the operators, it was asserted on the high est authority, told the statesmen that "politicians should not have interfered with this matter." This led to more or less irritable talk in the conference, and appear there as a politician, but as the Governor of the State of New York, representing seven millions of people Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas finally told the statesmen flatly that they would not settle this strike for the reason that they were fighting for a principle; and then they recalled to the statesmen that in 1900 they had given way to the miners' union only to find that they, the operators, had been treated most unfairly and unrighteously. Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas reiterated that there would be no settlement of the strike because they were fighting for a principle and a principle which was supported by the laws of the United States.

PLAN FOR PUBLIC CONTROL OF MINES. Senator Quay and Senator Penrose returned to Philadelphia yesterday afternoon. One of their friends said that they carried with them legal documents which might be submitted to a Supreme Court Judge of Pennsylvania asking for a decree which in effect would declare the mines of Pennsylvania to be public utilities.

Senator Quay and Senator Penrose may not think it advisable to take such a step, but their friends said last night that everything was possible
